Asian Storm: The Economic Crisis Examined Philippe Ries

In the wake of the crash of East Asia's economy, it is time for a frank discussion of the strategy for correcting the flaws in policy and infrastructure that undercut Asia's economic engine and for rebuilding its financial resources. Here, in absorbing detail, is an analysis not only of what went wrong and how it affected Japan and the other economies of new Asia, but how they can recover and become strong again. Philippe Ris, the economic and political correspondent for Agence France-Presse stationed in Tokyo, brings his singular expertise to a subject that continues to fascinate economists and businesspeople worldwide. Philippe Ris, the economic and political correspondent for Agence France-Presse, is stationed in Tokyo. He also covers related economic and political issues for neighboring Asian countries.
