Rival - Part Three Miranda Dawson

When Amy's past comes back to haunt her, she must quickly figure out who is interfering in her life and why.

Amy Kendrick thought she had moved on from the painful events of five years ago. She has a great job and her relationship with Matthew Bowers is emotionally and physically satisfying. But her life threatens to go off the rails when she comes face-to-face with the man who still haunts her nightmares. Instead of running, Amy decides enough is enough. She is going to figure who is messing with her life and see they get what's coming to them.

When Amy uncovers secrets about Matthew's past she fears the one good thing left in her life--her relationship with Matthew--is a lie. Matthew opens up and confides in Amy, but is it too late? Knowing the problem is only half of the battle; the real challenge comes when Matthew and Amy try to catch the guilty parties in the act. Amy wants those involved to be punished, but what price is she prepared to pay to see that happen?
