Kill Another Day Paul D Schneider

You don't want to mess with Carrie Anne Rath. A decisive and dynamic young woman, her mission in life is simple: she tracks down parents who have sexually abused their children and kills them, serving as judge, jury, and executioner. But things get complicated for Carrie Anne when one of her intended victims turns out to be a serial killer who is now obsessed with her. To make matters worse, her beloved younger sister shows up for a week-long visit with a secret agenda of her own: to convince Carrie Anne to forgive the man who sexually abused her as a child, their father. As her life spins out of control, Carrie Anne finds herself caught between a psychotic killer with a penchant for murdering and mutilating women and a sibling she's not sure she can trust. Now she's faced with the grim possibility that she must serve as judge, jury, and executioner and once again must kill another day.
