Thrust into an unforgiving world after a moment's frustration, Joyce Radway must learn to survive on her own. But when she unwittingly stumbles on a graveyard cover-up, she's both stunned and afraid. Joyce narrowly escapes, unaware that as she builds her new life she's being followed—by a man out to silence the only witness to his crime and another out to silence the guilt that plagues his heart. Will God's law protect Joyce when men are a law unto themselves?
