The memoir in a novel form which reads like no book that has ever been written. The story weaves together adventures that take the reader on a spiritual journey. Beginning with New York City Police trying to implicate our hero in a murder simply because he volunteered information he knew clairvoyantly. It ends in The Mother City of South Africa, Cape Town, which gives birth for the second time. Only this time to The Great New Religion, THE POWER of which our protagonist becomes the first leader. His destiny did not allow for any other response, not only to the injustices done to him, but to the great injustice done to all!
