Callie Stephens loves bondage, dating all the way back to when she first received a pair of toy handcuffs that didn't actually end up being toys for her birthday. The feeling of helplessness against restraints of rope and steel and eventually leather coupled with the erotic anticipation as her sexuality shifted to the forefront - over time bondage quickly grew to be one of her favorite pastimes, despite it being such a private part of her life that she only shared with a lucky few ... until now.

These are but the first of Callie's stories, including her first self-bound hogtie only months before heading off to college, a special tribute to her leather fetish that features a delectable, custom-made sleepsack and a rather unexpected domme, as well as one of her more recent adventures involving a talented friend who designed and built a very special bondage predicament just especially for her.

Every passion has to start somewhere - meet Callie and let her tell you why she loves bondage as she sets the stage for even more kinky tales soon to come...
