True Story: A Christianity Worth Believing In James Choung

Caleb has been a Christian for a long time. But he can't bring himself to share his faith with anyone because it doesn't sound like good news anymore. Christianity's claims come across as hollow, arrogant and intolerant. Worst of all, it feels like Christianity is just about "saving souls," giving people an escape ticket to heaven while the world falls apart. There must be more to it than that... In this engaging narrative, James Choung weaves a tale of a search for a Christianity worth believing in. Disillusioned believer Caleb and hostile skeptic Anna wrestle with the plausibility of the Christian story in a world of pain and suffering. They ask each other tough questions about what Jesus really came to do and what Christianity is supposed to be about. And the conversion that comes is not one that either of them expects.
