How many people have you given the Gospel and compelled to Jesus Christ? The latest religious statistics reveals that a staggering 95%—99% of Christians have never led one person to Christ in their entire lives! This reality opposes our whole purpose as to why Christ has left us here and what He commands us to do! This deplorable news should provoke us to learn how to be the effectual soulwinners God desires us to be. It should compel us to arise and go out into the world and proclaim the news of Christ's death, burial and resurrection for the sins of mankind to this lost and dying generation. Inside this much-needed resource is an all-comprehensive explanation on how you can simply and confidently share the Gospel to your family, friends, and strangers, and then guide them from death unto life. Presented within the pages of this book are clear, practical and biblical instructions along with real-life examples on how to become a fervent winner of souls. You will be refreshed as you gain biblical understanding on how to present the Gospel for all scenarios of life. This book provides insight into methods on how to witness to various kinds of people, including to Muslims, Jews, children, elderly, and even to telemarketers.
