Set in a small urban town called Clemont, She Thinks She's Sooo Cute tells the story of Jayla Brown, a 12-year-old girl and leader amongst her peers who has always been comfortable with her social standing with her friends at school. However, the arrival of a new girl, Kia Michaels, threatens to shift how everyone fits into the pecking order of Mrs. Newman's sixth grade class. When it becomes clear that Kia is keeping a secret and her secret is revealed, she suddenly becomes the victim of bullying. Jayla then has to find the courage to stand up against bullying, even when some of those bullies are her own friends. She makes entries in her diary daily. Those entries become therapeutic for her and those around her. It's all Written by Jayla. .
