The School of the Holy Spirit is a training ground for every Christian who wishes to walk along the narrow road that leads to life. The guide is the Holy Spirit himself, who in his gentle and loving — yet firm — manner, leads us through a journey of prayer, repentance, surrender, faith, forgiveness and love until we have cast off the chains that bind us to the world and walk as free children of God. Based on the personal experiences of the author, including the poignant story of his conversion, this is a powerful and moving book that could very well change your life.
