Excerpt from A History of the State Normal School of Kansas, for the First Twenty-Five Years

The work is submitted with a consciousness of its defects, and yet in the belief that few important matters have been omitted, and that in the main it will be found reliable and helpful.

The etchings are, with few exceptions, from photographs.

The catalogue for 1888-9 is bound with the volume to place it in form for preservation, and to give a complete view of the organization of the School at the present time.

We regret that many of the beautiful letters which the inquiries called forth cannot be given space in this volume. They have opened to us the hearts and homes of some of the noblest men and women who have ever consecrated themselves to the cause of human progress. They have breathed that spirit of fidelity, of sympathy, and encouragement, whose fragrance is sweeter than that of the rose or of the blossoms of spring-time.

The task has been a pleasant one, and if this shall serve, not only as a book of reference and a reminder of the past, but as a quickening spirit to stimulate all to a livelier interest in the mission of the State Normal School, and to the cause of higher education in our great commonwealth, the labor will have its reward.
